

DAVID LEE

MERN & MOBILE FULL STACK DEVELOPER

ABOUT ME

I am a FullStack MERN Developer with an interest in everything related to technology.

I am a curious person, with a learning spirit and a passion for teaching. Committed and always focused on achieving all the goals that I set for myself both individually and as a group.

My goal is to continue advancing individually and as a group and to have the opportunity to share my knowledge and learn with my peers in order to develop myself in the field of work that I have to do.
